3. All owners will be required to sign a Display Agreement each year prior to tractors being parked for display.
4. Any damages to Pioneer Building (including clean up costs of oil and other fluids not remediated by Owner) will be billed to Owner whose tractor caused said damage.

Other terms:

1. Indemnification and Hold Harmless. The Hancock County Agriculture Association (HCAA) and Hancock County 4-H Fair assume no liability for any loss or damage to property or by reason of any claim for personal injury, including death. The HCAA and Hancock County 4-H Fair shall not be held liable to any owner, owner's family, or employees for any damage done to or sustained by an Owner or Owner's family, its item(s) on display, its employees, or anyone who comes in contact with the item(s) on display. Owner agrees to indemnify and hold HCAA and its officers, agents and volunteers, harmless from any and all injury and/or damage resulting from and during owner's use of the Pioneer Building space.
2. General Prohibited Activities. Owner agrees to refrain from the following prohibited activities which may be supplemented anytime at the discretion of HCAA.
  - a. No knives or guns shall be allowed on the fairgrounds unless approved for space. No Items may be exhibited or sold that shoot a projectile or that can be misconstrued as a weapon.
  - b. No suggestive, offensive or obscene materials may be displayed or distributed. HCAA reserves the right to ask that offensive items be removed from any space.
  - c. No person shall be permitted to bring onto any part of the Hancock County Fairgrounds during the Hancock County 4-H Fair any animal, bird or reptile except for those participating in a competition or show sanctioned by the Fair or licensed service animals. Persons violating this rule will be immediately requested to leave.
  - d. No loud speakers, loud speaking devices or undue noises are permitted by Owners or vendors, excepting amusement operators.
  - e. No Beer or Alcoholic Beverages. No beer, wine, liquor, or other forms of alcoholic beverages, whatsoever, are permitted to be served, consumed or present on the Fairgrounds during the 4-H Fair. Owner is responsible for enforcing this rule. Failure to follow this rule will result in immediate ejection and forfeiture of any and all future display privileges.
  - f. No Smoking. No smoking is permitted in any of the buildings located upon the Fairgrounds, whether the building is enclosed or open due to local ordinance and the Indiana State Fire Marshal.
  - g. Severe Weather. In case of severe weather, HCAA may cancel events and/or announce an early closing time in which case Owners are responsible for securing their property.

By signing below, Owner acknowledges that he/she has carefully read, agrees to, and accepts the terms and conditions set forth in this agreement.
